13

□ Policy mastery

Indo-Nepali relations have always swung between harmony and conflict albeit without erupting into full-scale disputes, wherein India has already imposed unofficial economic blockades three times in the past 67 years in order to maintain its political leverage. It has often supported anti-government campaigns in Nepal like the Maoist movement or the recent 'Madhesh Movement', whenever India has felt a threat to its hegemony.

Leadership Context: Re-orientation

□ Leadership style and philosophy: Egalitarian Vs Authoritarian

A highly trained military requires smart and well educated soldiers. Simply ordering people to do things "because I said so" may work in the short run, but in the long run this approach will fail. This is also true because police leaders in general has to interact with civilians, non-government agencies, and a host of other formal and informal groups to achieve their objectives.

Leadership Context: Re-orientation

□ Transformational Vs Transactional leadership

The transformational leader empowers subordinates to achieve the organization's goals. They see developing and growing others as more important than micromanaging schedules, doling out rewards and punishments, and enforcing standards.

□ Culturally savvy

To win hearts and minds, and to prevent conflict and civil wars instead of fighting them, they must become skillful at understanding the culture in which they are deployed, and adept at working with people from diverse backgrounds, religions, and cultural practices

□ Lead SMARTLY

Knowing how to harness the power of information technology, command and control systems, social media, communication systems, weapons within and outside

Leadership Context: Re-orientation

19

□ Rule of Engagement

Successful security operations minimize killing or being killed. Knowing how to leverage power to achieve objectives without injuring or killing others is crucial to long term, strategic success

Leadership Context: Re-orientation

20

□ Cooperation is Key

Leader must be skillful at working with other government and non-government agencies to accomplish their mission

Final thought contd...

- Like carbon to the diamond, character is the basic quality of the leader. . . . But as carbon alone does not create a diamond, neither can character alone create a leader.

Final thought contd...

The diamond needs heat. Man needs knowledge, study and preparation. . . . The third property, pressure—acting in conjunction with carbon and heat—forms the diamond.

Similarly, one's character attended by knowledge, blooms through application to produce a leader“.

- GEN Edward C. Meyer

Thank you

Do not wait on a leader...
look in the mirror,
its you!

Leaders become great, not because of their power, but because of their ability to empower others.
